

Margaret Pageler was appointed to a six year term on the Central Puget Sound Growth Management Hearings Board on July 1, 2004 by Governor Gary Locke. Following is a brief outline of Ms. Pageler's employment record and selected personal and professional achievements.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Seattle City Council 1992-2003

- Council President 2000-2001
- Chaired Council committees on public safety, health, energy, public utilities, environmental management, and intergovernmental relations
- Member, Puget Sound Regional Council, King County Growth Management Planning Council, Regional Water Quality Committee, and various interjurisdictional salmon recovery forums
- Chair, Seattle Public Utilities Operating Board
- Executive committee Association of Washington Cities

Stoel Rives LLP 1981-1991

- Varied practice including real estate, banking, utility, environmental and municipal law

CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

- Washington State and Seattle/King County Boards of Health, 6 years
- Puget Sound Clean Air Agency, board chair 3 years
- Sister city associations – Seattle/Gydnia, Seattle/Kaohsiung, Seattle/Chongqing
- West Seattle neighborhood plans steward
- Seattle Planning Commission, 3 years
- Allied Arts of Seattle, board member and president
- Founding board member Mothers Against Violence in America, 1000 Friends of Washington, Northwest Climate Change Council, Vision Seattle
- Various – Historic Seattle, Save Franklin High School, Ceasefire, Municipal League, League of Women Voters, Seattle Chinese Garden Society
- Various – Illinois: Schaumburg (IL) Elementary School District school board, 6 years, Northwest (IL) Special Ed Cooperative, board chair 3 years, Governor's Commission on Gender Equity in Education.

HONORS/AWARDS

- Elected in November 2003 to the Executive Committee of ICLEI (International Cities for Local Environmental Initiatives), an international consortium of 500+ cities committed to best practices in environmental management.
- Municipal League 2001 James R. Ellis Regional Leadership Award

EDUCATION

- BA, Wheaton College, IL
- MEd, Northern Illinois University (educational administration)
- JD, University of Chicago Law School

PERSONAL

- Born in wartime China, to missionary parents; raised in China and Taiwan.
- Married for 40+ years to John Pageler.
- Four grown children all graduates of Franklin High School in our richly-diverse Lakewood-Seward Park neighborhood in southeast Seattle.